

What kind of food do you think a fox eats?

Circle your answers below!

A fox can smell their food from up to 7 feet away!

Ranger Fact:

Did you know that feeding human food to animals can make them sick? Make sure you always respect wildlife by giving them space and keeping human-food to yourself!

Nature Journaling

Lots of deer live in The Mariners' Museum Park. Deer are herbivores which means they eat plants. If you were a deer for a day, what would you do? Write your answer below.

Bring your completed scavenger hunt to the front desk of the Museum for a PRIZE!

Animals are a living things that can move around to find food.

Start your journey in our Bumblebee Learning Garden!

1,2,3, there's a bee!

Check off which pollinators you see! Look in the Bumblebee Learning Garden!

Butterfly

Bumblebee

Beetle

What do you think the bugs in our garden eat?

Draw a picture of a bug eating their favorite food!

Ranger Fact:

Did you know that bees pollinate up to 80% of flowering plants around the world?

FOLD HERE

Large dashed-line box for drawing a picture of a bug eating its favorite food.

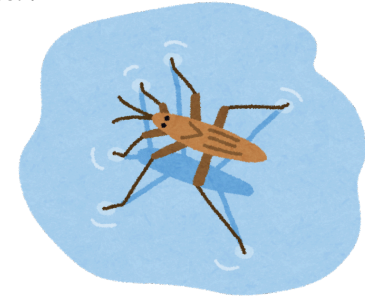

Help me find my acorns to store for winter!

Can you help the gray squirrel get to the acorns safely?

Head to Bridge 2 or the boathouse to answer the rest of the questions!

Water Striders use the surface tension of water to skim in search of smaller insects.

How does their body shape help them walk on water?

We have 11 different species of turtles in the park! They love to swim under Bridge 2 and near the boathouse.

Animals make different sounds from chirps, tweets, hisses, barks and more!

What animal noises do you hear?
What sounds can you copy?

FOLD HERE

How many turtles can you count?

_____ turtles

Dragonflies & damselflies are amazing fliers!

With 4 wings they ZOOM over the water in all directions.

Pretend you are one and zoom around then rest as your favorite flier!

I'm a dragonfly!
I rest with my wings spread out.

I'm a damselfly!
I rest with my wings tucked behind me.

Many aquatic animals find food, water, and shelter along the Mariners' Lake shoreline.

Fill in the blank! (6 letter word)

HINT: It starts with the first letter of my name!

_____ is a place that animals call home!